

Here are some student maths sites, which you may like to encourage your children to explore. Regards Jan & Margie

Site Link	Level	Rating (1-4)	Summary http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/ks1bitesize/numeracy/	1-3		This link is part of the BBC schools site. It provides online activities for primary aged students.	nzmaths Review KS1 Bitesize Games Review http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/ks2bitesize/maths/	1-4		This link is part of the BBC schools site. It provides online activities, revision pages, and quizzes for students in a range of mathematical areas.	KS2 Bitesize Games Review http://www.oswego.org/ocsd-web/games/Mathmagician/cathymath.html	1-3		This link is part of the Oswego City School District. It has quick fire basic facts quizzes. Awards can be printed for scores of 90% or more.	Math Magician Games Review http://www.oswego.org/ocsd-web/games/Ghostbusters1/gbcd.html	2-4		This is an appealing online game to help students practice identifying multiples from 2 to 20.	Ghost Blasters Review http://www.oswego.org/ocsd-web/games/SpeedGrid/Addition/urikares.html	3		This is an appealing online game to provide students with addition practice.	Speed Grid Challenge Review http://helpingathome.thelearningfederation.edu.au/	1-4		This site provides parents/caregivers with a range of digital activities to do with their children. For each activity suggestions are provided about how to use the activity, questions to ask children and further activities for families to do together.	Helping at Home Review http://www.mathszone.co.uk/	1-4		The majority of materials on this site are interactive online activities, suitable for independent student use. With all strands of the NZ mathematics curriculum covered at a variety of levels this site contains something for everyone.	Site Maths Zone Review http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/mathsfile/	3-4		Part of the BBC's online educational material, the Maths File Game Show makes mathematics fun and accessible to students at levels 3 and 4 of the NZ mathematics curriculum.	Maths File Review